IRA Qualified Deductions

The Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes Act of 2015 (the PATH Act) allows donors aged 70½ to direct funds from their IRA to qualified charitable organizations without the transfer counting as income for federal tax purposes.

- Donors must be age 70½ at the time of the gift.
- Donors can direct up to $100,000 from their IRA to qualified organizations. Donors can direct their gift to more than one organization, but it must not exceed $100,000.
- Funds are transferred directly from the IRA to the qualified charity. Only funds from a traditional IRA qualify.
- Only tax-exempt organizations classified as 501(c)(3) can receive these gifts; the Roman Catholic Diocese of Raleigh is under this classification. The Diocese will direct these gifts to the appropriate parish, school, or mission.
- Please see the fillable pdf sample letter below to send to your IRA financial advisor authorizing funds transfer.
- We recommend that you retain a copy of the sample letter for your records.
- You are strongly encouraged to check with your financial advisors to determine if this gift is right for you. We do not provide legal or tax advice.
